Dear Mr. Sunday & Mr. Knight:

We recently received your Obama in 30 Seconds submission entitled "Some Good Things Are Black and White."

We are unable to accept and/or post this submission.

We received over 1,400 submissions and yours is the only one we are unable to post on our site. It is tasteless and downright offensive. At one point you compare Senator Obama to a Dalmatian.

Aside from its offensive content, you failed to follow even the most basic rules of the contest (ie: your Obama in 30 Seconds submission was 62 seconds in length.)

Although we try to be as open minded as possible we simply cannot have our name associated with yours in any way. We respectfully ask (and firmly require per contest regulations) that you refrain from posting this video online.

Since its inception, Moveon.org has worked tirelessly to foster inclusion. The notion that "there is very little evidence that breeding between blacks and whites is harmful to the universe" is quite obvious to anyone living in the modern age.

We are returning the ten (10) DVDs you sent us. We ask that you destroy them immediately. Thank you for your cooperation.
